HOME WRECKER

Court Finds That One Figured Recently in Two Suits For Divorce.

Justice Kelly in the Brooklyn Supreme Court started an investigation today to find out whether a certain "dark woman" is in the business of compromising husbands. In the trial of the divorce suit of Mrs. Fannie Cohen against Morris Cohen, No. 2302 Surf Avenue, Coney Island, it was charged that Cohen was guilty of misconduct with the "dark woman" in the Hotel Imperial on Aug. 2. Cohen said he was asked by the "dark woman" to go to the hotel with her so she could tell him something confidentially about his wife.

"LIFTING A CURSE" WAS VERY COSTLY

(Special to The Evening World.)
SYRACUSE, Jan. 19.—Charged with having received $1,000 for "lifting a curse" from Mrs. Adam Adamowski, thereby freeing her from falling health, Mrs. Anna Yanka, now serving time in a Cincinnati jail, has been twice indicted by the Grand Jury here and extradition papers are being prepared.

Mrs. Yanka, a phrenologist, palmist, fortune teller and professed worker of miraculous cures, is alleged to have demanded $2,000 from Mrs. Adamowski, but accepted half the amount and promised to return it after using the money in prayers and incantations to drive away the evil spirits hovering over her.

The woman worked among foreigners and professed to work cures by means of charms and repeating words designed to ward off and prevent sickness, according to several complaints lodged with the District Attorney.

Express Elevators to Revised Prices

THINGS have happened once more at The Man's Shop which enable it to make several choice offerings, temporarily, at wholesale prices or less.

Manufacturers willing to make sacrifices to finish up a disturbed season's business naturally have sought an outlet where the sacrifice in price may prove a prestige-making investment.

Several such instances have occurred among those who regularly turn out things offered in The Man's Shop—this time including makers of shoes, shirts, hats and hosiery.

SHOES

Three fine offerings at $8.75—carrying you back to pre-war values, as compared with the high-price peak happily left behind.

One, a dark brown brogue Oxford shoe for Summer or Winter, of splendidly selected stock—a shoe of distinction for town or country; another, a brown cordovan high shoe with brown calf top, on English last; and a third, a cordovan brown high shoe of calf. All three are of latest style and luxuriously easy fitting.

SHIRTS

Two selections—one at $2.95 and the other at $3.95—both recently selling at very much higher prices. Tailored to meet The Man's Shop standard—five buttons, and with soft French cuffs of correct dimensions—extremely well finished. At $2.95, of all-woven madras and madras cords of fine foreign and domestic manufacture. At $3.95, of imported all-woven madras, seen in the better custom shirt lines.

Both assortments of carefully picked stripes and colorings, from the most conservative to the limit of accepted usage.

HATS

At $4.75—your choice of the season's best productions—averaging much less than original wholesale prices; in some instances one-half.

Fine black stiff hats and soft hats of newest American and English blocks, in seal brown, French brown, Italian green, Oxford, French gray and mixtures. All sizes. The retail prices of all these hats were consistent with the highest grades in this country.

HOSIERY

Full-fashioned Lisle half-hose at 75 cents a pair! Mercerized Lisle—reinforced soles and heels—in black, white, cordovan, navy, suede and tan. You know what you have been paying for full-fashioned Lisle hosiery.
